WORLD'S HIGH HORSE JUMP.

AMHERST BREAKS THE RECORD ON STATEN ISLAND.

THE PERFORMANCE ONE OF THE PEATURES OF MORSE EXHIBITION.

The Richmond County Fair and Horse Show Asociation brought its horse exhibition to a close resterday afternoon with what was called "ladies" features, and which included the finest of the many classes of horses and equipments. The show was excellent, and more than 1,000 persons were esent. An exhibition of high jumping was given the hunters Amherst and Vulcan, who broke the er world's championship record, which was ix feet two inches. The bars were first put at five feet, and the horses took them easily. They were raised steadily, until six feet two inches was d, and then they were raised four inches. oth horses cleared the bars, and then there was great cheering. The bars were then put at six feet inches, and Amherst cleared it after two ef-The horses are owned by P. A. and Charles t, of New-Brighton. ## SUSPENDED PATROLMEN DRAWING PAY.

CHIEF CONLIN'S LETTER TO THE BOARD URGES

At the meeting of the Police Board yesterday the Commissioners received the following communicafrom Chief Conlin:

Ion from Chief Conlin:

I have the honor to forward to you herewith a list of eleven members of the Department who are under suspension, and I would respectfully recommend that, as these men are receiving pay while suspended, and as the suspension of at least seven of them dates back to the early part of the year 1895, some action be taken toward the speedy settlement of their cases, so that if innocent of the charges trainst them they may resume their duties, and if the total the communication was referred to the them.

The Chief's communication was referred to the Committee on Rules and Discipline for a report. Several of the patrolmen named will be restored to duty within a few days.

TROUBLE OVER A FUNERAL,

A TELEPHONE MESSAGE CAUSES CORONER HOE-BER TO STOP IT-CHARGES MADE AND

Rosa M. Fischer, twenty-seven years old, the wife of Dr. Joseph M. Fischer, died at 1:30 a. m. yeaterday from heart disease, at her home, No. 349 East Eighty-seventh-st. She had been ill for more than a year Dr. Alexander Rixs, of No. 223 East Eighty-sixth-st. signed the certificate of death, and at 9 o'clock yesterday morning the Health Deent issued a burial permit to Samuel Ascher, n undertaker, of No. 629 Sixth-st. Dr. Fischer is a member of the Independent Order of the Sons of Benjamin, the Sons of Judah, the Brith Abraham and the Independent Order of Odd for the death of the wife of a member is $200, and in each of the other three it is $500. Ascher, the undertaker, is the Grand Messenger of the Grand Lodge of the Sons of Benjamin. Half an hour after the burial permit had been issued somebody, who gave the name of M. Meyer, undertaker, of No. 545. Fifth-st., rang up the Coroner's office on the tele-

Fifth-st., rang up the Coroner's office on the telephone and sent a message that Mrs. Fischer's death needed investigation, as it was supposed that the had ded from poisoning, and that her husband. Dr. Fischer, had attended her.

Coroner Hoeber ordered the police to stop the funeral and began an investigation. He looked at the corpse, examined some of the neighbors and Dr. Rixa, and took a statement from Dr. Fischer. The Coroner could find no undertaker named Meyer at the number mentioned in the telephone message. Ascher, however, who was present at the investigation, was eager to talk, and made a number of charges against Dr. Fischer, which the latter indignantly denied. Dr. Fischer, which the latter indignantly denied. Dr. Fischer gave evidence that his wife had been suffering from heart disease, and Dr. Rixa, who was summoned by the Coroner, corroberated his statement and testified to the correctness of the death certificate. No proof was forthcoming as to the truth of Ascher's charges against the moral character of the dead woman's husband, and the Coroner became indignant.

twant you, as a witness," said the Coroner to undertaker, "to repeat to me the statements have made to others, will answer no questions," shouted Ascher, "I here as an undertaker, not as a witness," ou will answer what questions I ask you or will go to the police station as a prisoner," red the Coroner.

You will go to the ponce station as a policeman torted the Coroner.

Ascher started for the door, but a big policeman barred his way. He at last made this statement, signed and swore to it:

"I have known Dr. Fischer a few years, perhaps three, and I have no reason to suspect him of ever doing any wrons. I know nothing to the detriment of his character. I never knew him to be arof his character. I never knew him to be arrested."

Now," roared the angry Coroner, "get out of here as quick as you can, you mischlef-making busybody! I believe that you are the only M. Meyer there is. Clear out, quick!"

"I'll take my time. You can't buildoze me," began Ascher, but he abruptly ended his remarks and hurriedly left the room.

Coroner Hoeber said he would hold the investigation in abeyance until noon to-day, by which time he will have received the testimony of other physicians who have attended Mrs. Fischer. He added that in his opinion no autopsy would be necessary, and that the whole trouble had been caused by a mischlef-maker.

J. HARPER BONNELUS STATEMENT.

In regard to the suit brought against him by Henry H. Stewart to recover $45,000 and to have a receiver appointed for the ink-manufacturing business of the J. Harper Bonnell Company, Mr. Bonnell made the following statement yesterday: "Tne $45,600 claimed to have been used by J. Harper Bonnell and wife represents the amount voted for salary and commissions on sales for the last five years. "Mr. Stewart himself voted for the same. The company never was in better condition, and expert accountants' certificates will be given to that effect on Monday. We can stand any run upon us beyond question. I am informed that Mr. Stewart has gone to the trade who supply us to help undo the mischief as far as possible."

Mr. Stewart sued Mr. Bonnell and his wife in the Supreme Court. He alleged in his complaint that he was a holder of sixty shares of the stock of the J. Harper Bonnell Company, and averred that between October 19, 1891, and August 15, 1896, Mr. Bonnell, who is president of the company, and his wife, Margaret C. Bonnell, formed a conspiracy and wrongfully withdrew $45,000 which they had converted to their own use.

FELLED BY A FLYING ROPE.

THE CAPTAIN OF A BARGE KNOCKED SENSELESS

ON THE DECK. Captain Manluf Williams of the coal barge Glendower, owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Ratiroad Company, iles in Bellevue Hospital, suffering from injuries the results of which are uncer-tain at present. On Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock the Glendower and three other barges left New-Bedford, Mass., for the Delaware Breakwater, in tow of the tug Tamaqua. The four barges were lashed or "bridled" together by more than twenty ropes, which were fastened on "bits."

When the tug and barges reached a point about miles this side of Execution Rock, on Long four miles this side of Execution Rock, on Long Island Sound, on Thursday evening, a storm blew up. In a howling gale one of the ropes either slipped from a "bit" or parted. It struck Captain Williams a terrific blow on the side of the head and felled him to the deck of the Glendower.

It was nearly six hours later when the tow reached New-York. The four barges were anchored in the East River and the tug conveyed the injured man, who had been screaming deliriously from pain all the way after the accident, to East Twenty-sixth-st. An ambulance was called from Believue Hospital, where the captain was taken.

Captain Williams lives at No. 71 State-st., Camden, N. J. His wife has been informed of the accident. He is conscious only part of the time!

REVERSED BY PATENT COMMISSIONER.

HE OVERBULES THE DECISION OF THE EX-AMINERS IN THE CASE OF SCUDDER AGAINST MERGENTHALER

chief in the case of W. S. Scudder against Ottmar Mergenthaler, as to priority of invention in lin He finds "that Scudder conceived the invention as to the construction of his complicated, costly, but entirely successful second machine in October, 1892, and therefore priority of invention is awarded to cudder and the decision of the examiners-in-chief

The patent controverted by the interference decided by the Commissioner, it is said by one of the parties interested in the case, is for a minor part of the typesetting machine, and the decision will have no practical bearing upon the situation until after the expiration of the basic patent of the Mergenthaler machine.
